RICH STUNNING COLOR WITHOUT BLOTCHING OR STREAKS

Osmo Oil Stain is a richly pigmented stain for wood flooring. The oils achieve an even coloration without any visible transitions and make wood grain stand out. Simple application on flooring with one coat applied with a brush, roller or trowel and buffed with a single disk machine. Available in warm browns, trend grays, white and black. Oil Stain 3519 Neutral creates a raw wood look. Optimal wood protection and uniform sheen is provided by a top coat with Osmo Polyx®-Oil.

REDHEAT

CLEANEST SCRATCH PATTERN IN FLOOR SANDING

- 100% patented SG ceramic grain
- Cuts more aggressively for fast coatings and adhesive removal when prepping subfloors
- Produces the smoothest scratch pattern resulting in superior, scratch-free results

Debuting This Fall: WFB Live in Baltimore

For years now, people have been asking us: When are we going to do our own event? They've been wanting an industry event that is open to the entire industry, just like our magazine is for the entire wood flooring industry. So we're excited to announce that WFB Live will take place for the first time this fall, on Nov. 4–5 at the Baltimore Convention Center. WFB Live will be co-located with the Athletic Business Show, the premier event for the owners and managers of athletic and fitness facilities, which is also owned by our parent company, AB Media.

WFB Live will include a one-day school on Nov. 4 hosted by the International Wood Flooring Association, followed by one full day of exhibits, with a focus on hands-on experiences so you can try all the tools, equipment and products you're interested in, plus a slate of roundtable lunches where attendees can network with industry experts and fellow pros. The day will be capped off by a fantastic industry party. Stay tuned at wfblive.com for more details as they become available. We'd love to see you in Baltimore!

P.S.

Have you done an awesome floor in the last year? Don't miss the deadline for the WFB Design Awards: Feb. 1. These are the only awards open to the entire wood flooring industry, and winners are featured in the April/May issue and receive prizes, too. For more info, go to wfbmag.co/wfbda20entry.
